BUD MARKLEY HURT.

Bud Markley was seriously hurt while riding a bronch at Dow Wood's Tuesday. The horse ran through a wire gate catching its front feet in the wire and throwing both horse and rider very hard.

Bud received injuries about the head and shoulders that have rendered him unconscious. It is hoped that his injuries will not develop into anything very serious and that he will soon be out with us again.

SPECIAL CLUBBING OFFER.

Every intelligent man wants to keep up with the news of his own community and county. Therefore he needs a good local newspaper. He also needs a paper of general news, and for State, National, and world-wide happenings he will find that

THE SEMI-WEEKLY FARM NEW has no superior. The secret of great success is that it gives the farmer and his family just what they need in the a family newspaper. In addition to its general news and agricultural features, it has special pages for the wife, the boys and the girls.

It gives the latest market reports and publishes more special crop reports during the year than any other paper. For $2.25 cash in advance, we will send The Semi-Weekly Farm New and The Lovington Leader, each for one year. This means you will get a total of 156 copies. It's a combination which can't be beat, and you are your money's worth many times over.

DANGEROUS DAMS.

The Villages of Austin and Costello Were Practically Wiped out, as Result of an Insecure Dam.

The Governor of Pennsylvania insists that there is to be a rigid investigation of the disaster at Austin, but while that determination meets with the hearty approval of the newspaper editors, they add that the question of most importance to the public is how similar disasters may be prevented in the future. "In a well ordered, wisely controlled community, the Johnstown flood would have been the last of its kind," declares the New York Times. The bursting of the Conemaugh dam in 1889, with its destruction of 2,000 lives and a property valued at $10,000,000, was surely a sufficient warning against the building of insecure dams at the top of narrow valleys. Yet on September 30 there was a practical repetition of the catastrophe in the Sinnemahoning Valley in the same section of the State, in
